WHY SAMEDAY UK?

Sameday UK was formed in 1996 to provide a professional and comprehensive dedicated same day delivery service throughout the UK and Europe, utilising modern equipment and technology to ensure the highest standards.

Sameday UK specialise in the quality sector of the market where there is an ever increasing need to move documents, parcels and pallets urgently. Same-day delivery is now an integral part of today's fast moving business world, presenting enormous potential for an organisation that can deliver with speed and reliability.

Sameday UK is an award-winning company, a member of the RHA, and a founder member of the Institute of Couriers. The company has an enviable reputation based on quality service, reliability and trust.

Sameday UK can offer you all the advantages of a proven system. You will receive...

- Comprehensive training course
- Marketing programme to promote your business
- Ongoing support and business development
- Centralised invoicing and credit control
- Access to advantageous vehicle terms

SAMEDAY UK CAN OFFER YOU ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF A PROVEN SYSTEM

WHY FRANCHISING?

Franchising offers you a much safer route into business, as your "Business Blue Print" has been tried and tested, thus avoiding many of the pitfalls of a new start up. Franchising combines the expertise of an established company with the commitment and entrepreneurial flair of the individual.

Franchising is a proven concept in the express delivery market and Sameday UK is now looking to expand its established network as part of the next growth phase.

Franchising with Sameday UK gives you the following benefits:

- No invoicing or credit control means you do not suffer from bad debts
- No stock or premises to tie up your money
- Part of a national network benefiting from other franchisees
- Strong corporate brand image, increasing sales & marketing potential
- You can work from home and expand your business as you develop
